

Whanganui Repertory Theatre Newsletter

August 2020

Dear Members

There was a wonderful attendance at our A.G.M. in July. Thank you. At the meeting we celebrated the Life Membership of Nadine Rayner. Congratulations Nadine and thank you for your hard work and dedication to Repertory Theatre for the last 40 years. Nadine has since been elected as our Vice President.

It is with regret that the Committee has accepted the resignation of April Pearson. We thank April for her hard work, contribution to Repertory work and dedication! We will miss her and hope that she will continue to be a part of Rep.

Thank you to all members who took up the offer of a free show and came along to enjoy our production of “Deck Chairs” held in July. There was very positive feedback, a special thank you to all those involved for their hard work and enthusiasm.

On to our next play which is..... “The Daylight Atheist” by Tom Scott.

Rehearsals are well under way and performance dates in September are: Thursday 3rd Friday 4th, Saturday 5th at 7:30pm and Sunday 6th at 2pm. Then again Thursday the 10th, Friday 11th and Saturday 12th is our final performance. $20 for Rep Members and Senior Citizens, $25 Adult, under 18s $10. Tickets are available on line at www.whanganuivenues.co.nz or at the Royal Wanganui Opera House. We have all the Covid 19 safety measures in place for the performances.

Kerry Girdwood is the Director and describes the play as:

“Sometimes tender and regretful, sometimes bitter and angry, often startlingly funny, this black comedy is a raw, powerful, uncomfortable play.”

“It really is a wonderful show – you will laugh and feel sad. but you will totally enjoy this!”
‘Dingbat’ Actress/Secretary.

We need ‘BUMS ON SEATS!!’ we don’t care what age, shape, condition or size they are in, we need you there! Phone your Friends!

Activities are planned for Heritage Weekend held on Labour weekend. A newsletter will be sent out telling you more about the activities we plan to have.

We also wish to give a shout out to and support our friends at Amdram and their upcoming show “The Lion, the Witch and The Wardrobe” which opens 25 September.

Take Care & Go Safely.
